

Intercultural Team Agility and Project Management

Objectives

- develop, raise and apply culture awareness
- discover the own national culture in the eyes of other countries and vice versa
- uncover the individual personal culture and assessing the team cross cultural experience
- learn about the Model-of-Freedom© methodology for cross culture teamwork and communication
- detect and cope with culture diversity
- develop a cross functional team culture for intercultural project teams
- utilize innovative thinking through culture diversity

Programme Contents

- Fundamentals of Culture identity
- Sources of authority in different cultures
- Leadership and management style of different countries
- Cultural impact of rules and regulations on business behaviours
- Comparing communication styles and decision making processes different cultures

Methodology

- learning the Model-of-Freedom© methodology
- working with the personal culture profiles
- assessing the team culture profiles
- lectures from cross culture experts
- work shops for exercises and business cases
- cross culture project management simulation

Organisation

- Target group
 - functional staff members, supervisors and project manager
- duration
 - 2 days